

Family History for You

Daniel Horowitz was a teacher and the study guide editor for over 15 years, of the family history project "Searching for My Roots" in Venezuela. He holds board level positions with the Israel Genealogy Research Association (IGRA) and the International Association of Jewish Genealogical Societies (IAJGS) among others. As Chief Genealogist of MyHeritage, Daniel has a deep understanding of the needs of today's family history enthusiasts and provides key contributions in the areas of product development, customer support, and public affairs.

Tuesday, April 8 at 2:30pm

JGS of Greater Miami & Genealogical Society of Greater Miami

Pinecrest Branch Library, Miami-Dade Public Library System, 5835 SW 111th Street, Pinecrest.

Meet your Match: How MyHeritage SmartMatches and Record Matches can help you overcome brick walls

MyHeritage top of the line technology tools help you find relatives effortlessly: Smart Matching can extend your family tree and reunite you with long lost relatives; Record Matching looks in multiple sources to match the people in your family tree automatically and bring you the actual records. MyHeritage tools help you discover information about your relatives and collaborate with others all over the world.

Wednesday, April 9 at 7:00pm

*Beth Torah Benny Rok Campus, Nacron Chapel 3rd floor
20350 NE 26th Ave., Miami.*

How we share and preserve memories in a digital era?

Learn the different options you have and the best way to digitally collect, store, preserve, publish and share your research and material gathered over so many years, to let young generations enjoy, contribute and continue your work.

Come to the closest venue, learn about the latest developments in genealogy and get a FREE gift from

Beth Torah Benny Rok Campus
and
The Jewish Genealogical Society of Greater Miami

present

How we share and preserve memories in a digital era?

by
Daniel Horowitz

Wednesday, April 9 at 7:00pm

Beth Torah Benny Rok Campus, Nacron Chapel 3rd floor
20350 NE 26th Ave., Miami.

How we share and preserve memories in a digital era?

Learn the different options you have and the best way to digitally collect, store, preserve, publish and share your research and material gathered over so many years, to let young generations enjoy, contribute and continue your work.

Daniel Horowitz was a teacher and the study guide editor for over 15 years, of the family history project "Searching for My Roots" in Venezuela. He holds board level positions with the Israel Genealogy Research Association (IGRA) and the International Association of Jewish Genealogical Societies (IAJGS) among others. As Chief Genealogist of MyHeritage, Daniel has a deep understanding of the needs of today's family history enthusiasts and provides key contributions in the areas of product development, customer support, and public affairs.

For more information, please visit our web site:

<http://www.jgs-miami.org/>

The Genealogy Society of Greater Miami
and
The Jewish Genealogical Society of Greater Miami
present

Meet your Match:
MyHeritage SmartMatches
& Record Matches can help
you overcome brick walls

by
Daniel Horowitz

Tuesday, April 8 at 2:30pm

Pinecrest Branch Library, 5835 SW 111th Street, Pinecrest

MyHeritage top of the line technology tools help you find relatives effortlessly: Smart Matching can extend your family tree and reunite you with long lost relatives; Record Matching looks in multiple sources to match the people in your family tree automatically and bring you the actual records. MyHeritage tools help you discover information about your relatives and collaborate with others all over the world.

Daniel Horowitz was a teacher and the study guide editor for over 15 years, of the family history project "Searching for My Roots" in Venezuela. He holds board level positions with the Israel Genealogy Research Association (IGRA) and the International Association of Jewish Genealogical Societies (IAJGS) among others. As Chief Genealogist of MyHeritage, Daniel has a deep understanding of the needs of today's family history enthusiasts and provides key contributions in the areas of product development, customer support, and public affairs.

For more information, please visit our web sites:

<http://www.rootsweb.ancestry.com/~flgsgm/>

<http://www.jgs-miami.org/>