"A Genealogist's Journey "

Presented by Dr. Simon Kindler (Canada)

Dr. Simon Kreindler grew up in Barbados, West Indies; studied medicine in Montreal and since 1971 has practiced psychiatry in Toronto, Canada. He has been researching his family's Galician roots for many years and has been able to trace his paternal and maternal lines back to the late 1700s. In 2006, following a "roots trip" to Czernowitz and his families' ancestral shtetls of Ocna, Zablotov, Ilnice and Solotwina (all of them now in Western Ukraine) he embarked on writing a memoir for his children and grandchildren. His presentation will highlight some of the sources he has found useful and trace his families' migration from Europe to the Caribbean and Central America
