Cemeteries are great resource of information that every researcher must use. Here your relatives are just waiting for you to visit them, and start collecting all the information they have to offer you.

Be prepared and make sure you make the most out of your visit. Come to learn the preparation tasks you need to do before and during the visit for your personal research or for an indexing project.

Daniel will offer you different ways to overcome troubles when dealing with the death people, and those in charge of their care.
