“Woodcuts of Lost Treasures”

The Forgotten Wooden Synagogues of Eastern Europe

Bill Farran merged his love of art and history to begin a quest for stories, photos and drawings of the historic wooden shuls pervading the shtetls of Poland and Lithuania before the holocaust.

Please join us to learn how our visiting artist’s research resulted in the creation of his extraordinary woodcuts and linocuts, bringing the historic old synagogues back to life for posterity. In addition, European Jewish migrations and the Jewish Golden Age, its destruction and rebuilding will be discussed.
