

Jewish Genealogical Society
of Greater Miami, Inc.

In Collaboration with

Sunday Salon Temple Beth Am Library

5950 SW 88th Street Miami, Florida 33156

Sunday, May 5, 2019 at 10:00 am

Presenting a remarkable documentary

My Dear Children

A story of Jewish faith, family, and a tragedy that reverberated for generations. Share Feiga's story, rarely written down by its subjects, thus mostly unknown to their progeny. Many know little about the waves of pogroms that swept across Eastern Europe from the 1880s through 1921. The pogroms in the years following the Russian Revolution of 1917 killed tens of thousands of Jews and marked the beginning of the near-obliteration of Jewish life from an area of the world to which nearly 80% of the world's Jewry can trace its roots. Feiga Shamis, a Jewish mother of 12, wrote about those years in a rare first-hand account.

More Details at JGSGM blog of our website www.jgs-miami.org

Click our Facebook link from our web site