- Born and raised in Istanbul, Turkey, within a Sephardi family that produced a long line of rabbinical and communal leaders, Marc Gueron grew up speaking four languages in a cosmopolitan setting.

Marc has researched, written and spoken widely on matters related to the Middle East, Turkey, and Ottoman-Turkish Jewry.

A trustee of the American Sephardi Federation (ASF), Marc is among the founders of Moreshet Foundation that is erecting the Beit Moreshet National Museum for Sephardi and Mizrahi Heritage in Jerusalem, and currently serves as President of its International Friends.

Marc holds a BA from the Hebrew University of Jerusalem and an MBA from Columbia University in New York and has business interests in the fields of publishing and real estate.

Marc and Nava Gueron have three grown children and four grandchildren, and keep homes in Miami, FL, Wilton, CT, and Tel Aviv, Israel.
