A Slice of our Jewish Heritage Community – The Jewish Community from Egypt

Introduced by Professor Henry Green

Dr. Green is a professor of Judaic and Religious Studies at the University of Miami and the Founding Director of both the Jewish Museum of Florida and Sephardi Voices, the first comprehensive digital archive that documents and preserves the life stories of Jews who lived in Islamic lands. Join us as we explore the roots of the Jewish community heritage in Egypt along with participating speakers, experts in each area.

Alain Farhi, the creator of Les Fleurs de l'Orient, a website which includes the genealogy of the major families from the Ottoman Empire with more than 320,000 entries and the genealogy of the Karaite families of Egypt.

Yves Fedida, the founder of the Association Internacional of Nebi Daniel, a website focused on the Egyptian Jewish heritage detailing a wealth of information of the history, community registers, documents and artifacts as well as ongoing projects.

Juliette Glasser, a member of our own Temple Beth Am, has also graciously agreed to speak. She was displaced from Egypt in 1956.
