Seders and Cigars: A History of the Jews in Tampa

Along with filmmaker Barbara Rosenthal and historian Sylvia Gurinsky

Weaving together interviews of descendants from the founding Jewish families of Tampa, Florida, Seders & Cigars expands the history of the Jewish experience in America and brings their important and unique story to life, preserving it for future generations. This insightful documentary explores a variety of themes, including overcoming quotas on Jewish immigration, the challenge of maintaining extended family bonds, cultural assimilation, the nexus of anti-Semitism and segregation, as well as the rise of women in politics.
