

February 21st at 10:30 a.m.

Slice of Jewish Life - The Jewish Community in Iran

Join us for a special event co-sponsored by the Jewish Genealogical Society of Greater Miami, Sunday Salon at Temple

Beth Am Library and Sephardi Voices, moderated by Dr. Henry Green, University of Miami professor and founder of Sephardi Voices, along with Dr. Lina Samimy, physician, and artist, through testimony of her departure from Iran. Our Keynote speaker is

Dr. Lior Sternfeld, an assistant professor of history and Jewish Studies at Penn State, a social historian of the modern Middle East with interests in the histories of the Jewish people and other minorities of the region. Author of the book “Between Iran and Zion: Jewish Histories of Twentieth-Century Iran,” Sternfeld examines Zionism and constitutionalism, against the backdrop of Iranian nationalism, the development and integration of Jewish communities in Iran into the nation-building projects of the last century.

